“The difference that I notice before the children have eaten is that they’re always outside and sometimes if we cook late the teachers chase them to get in class. Whilst we are waiting for the porridge to be ready that shows me that they are hungry. When they eat there’s sanity even in their classes if the teachers are not in the room, they don’t make noise they will be concentrating on their studies.”

Volunteer Cook – Selina

“My friends describe me as a quiet person who doesn’t want violence or fighting with people, some describe me as a helper because since I am good at mathematics our teacher often tells me to help others in solving maths.”

Student - Jessy

“I would wish to pass all my subjects, and I would also wish to translate the Chewa language from English. I just wish to own a bicycle.”

Student - Nelson

“When the learners have eaten it’s easy to identify the change in them, firstly you see them rushing to wash their cups and get into the classes without waiting for a bell to ring. Secondly, when they get in class, we don’t need to settle down.”

MALAWI

Malawi was the first country to receive Mary's Meals. We have been serving children here since 2002 in close collaboration with the Government of Malawi. We have also joined forces with local partner MCSPA to deliver in-school feeding in difficult-to-reach areas.

Mary's Meals operates in most regions of Malawi and our programme feeds almost one third of all primary school-age children in the country.

We are currently feeding 1,043,455 children.

We feed in a total of 1,011 primary schools and Early Childhood Development Centres across Malawi.

A typical school meal consists of maize or soya porridge boosted with minerals and vitamins, known locally as 'likuni phala'.

- The Mary's Meals school feeding programme provides a much needed safety net for families who worry about how to feed their children.
- The vast scale of poverty and continued food insecurity faced by the people here is amplified by the adverse effects of climate change.
- Most families rely on smallholder farming to live, but this has become increasingly unstable as rising numbers of droughts and floods leave limited capacity for recovery and food production.

70.3% of the population live below the International Poverty Line of $1.90 USD per day.⁴

45.9% drop-out rate in primary school age children.⁵

Around 1.9 million people have insufficient food intake.⁶

For sponsoring feeding at

Kachere NN Primary School, Malawi

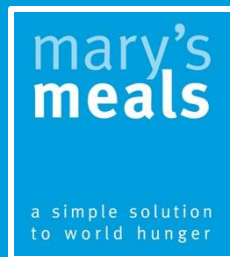

Mary's Meals is a global movement of people from all walks of life, united by the belief that no child should endure a day without a meal. We set up school feeding programmes in some of the world's poorest communities, where poverty and hunger would otherwise prevent children from gaining an education.

Thank you – you are amazing!
